About FITC

Norwich City FC / Norfolk County FA Football in the Community courses are fully recognised by the four football authorities – The Football League, The FA, The Premier League and The Professional Football Association. FITC are covered by public liability insurance and personal accident insurance.

NCFC / NCFA FITC courses are the only official courses run by Norwich City FC. FITC is a registered charity acting as a non-profit making grass roots organisation. Any surplus money made from the courses is redirected into the operation and expansion of the scheme.

Caution: other courses may not meet our standards!

Our coaching staff:

- Are FA qualified / sport governing body qualified to a minimum of Level 1;
- Have attended The FA Safeguarding Children in Football Workshop (formerly Child Protection - Best Practice Workshop);
- Hold a valid FA First Aid certificate;
- Have been police checked;
- Have attended FITC staff training programmes which ensure they are aware of new developments in football / sport-specific coaching courses.
